

STRATFORD CHESS CLUB SAFEGUARDING POLICY

1. Stratford Chess Club (hereinafter the 'Club') has decided to adopt a safeguarding policy. This will apply to all members of, and visitors to, the club when undertaking Club activities. A child in this context is deemed to be anyone less than eighteen years of age. The normal venue of the Club is, The Home Guard Club, Main St, Tiddington, Stratford-upon-Avon, CV37 7AY
2. The Club welcomes to its Tuesday evening sessions and events junior players who already play Chess to a reasonable standard. It also allows juniors of an appropriate level to participate in inter-club matches. There is no formal teaching of chess within the club. The purpose of this policy is to safeguard the welfare of children attending the Club by protecting them from physical, sexual and emotional harm.
3. A copy of the policy will be posted on the Stratford Chess Club Website.
4. The Club follows the English Chess Federation (ECF) Safeguarding Children Policy and Safeguarding Code of Conduct which can be found on the ECF website at www.englishchess.org.uk. As such the Club has appointed a Child Safeguarding Officer to ensure appropriate arrangements for keeping children and young people safe are in place.

The Safeguarding officer is: Richard Buxton. Contact email: safeguarding@stratfordchess.com

5. It is the duty of everyone in the club to pass on any concerns or allegations of child abuse or neglect without delay to the Child Safeguarding Officer who will investigate the concerns raised in accordance with ECF guidance.
6. All parents or guardians will be required to escort their children into the Club premises at the start of each session or event and to be present to collect their children again by 10pm or to provide written permission for the child to arrive and travel home alone or with another Club member.
7. The Club also welcomes child players to participate in inter-club matches away from the Club venue. All parents or guardians will be required to accompany their child to away matches and to remain at the away team's Club premises throughout the duration of the match or to provide written permission for the child to travel unaccompanied with other team members using travel arrangements made by the team captains and the itinerary conveyed to the parent or guardian in good time.
8. This policy will be reviewed and updated from time to time in line with experience and best practice in the area of safeguarding .

Side Note: The Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) and the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA) have merged to become the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). CRB checks are now called DBS checks
